

THIS WEEK AT CPC

January 10, 2019

We return to our regular worship schedule this Sunday to celebrate the Baptism of the Lord. For the first time in several years we will take this special Sunday as an opportunity not only to remember Jesus being baptized by John in the Jordan, but personally to renew our own commitment to the life of discipleship and participation in the life of the disciple community.

At the beginning of this new year we will stand together and reaffirm the promises that bind us to one another and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit in Baptism. This is a chance for each of us to remember all that God has done for us in Jesus Christ and recommit ourselves to living the life he has made possible for us in his death and resurrection.

We are getting 2019 off to a fresh start with God, one another and ourselves.

This Sunday:

All Middle and High School Youth interested in going to the Montreat Youth Conferences this Summer please let Holly know of your interest. This is one of those year's we have to change weeks because of the school calendar so our registration needs to get in early. Week 2 fills up quickly!

Youth Fellowship will resume for the Spring Semester on Sunday evening at 4:45. Meet in the fellowship hall for a night of fun and fellowship.

The Souper Bowl of Caring offering, which is used to fight hunger in our local community, will be received in Worship on Sunday, February 3.

Join us on Wednesday night for dinner at 5:30 and fellowship programming at 6:00. This week our Adult study will find a Presbyterian answer to the question - Is Social Justice Ministry Christian? (You might be surprised.)

Please continue to remember in your prayers this week:

- John Gordon, who is recovering from surgery at home;
- Max Craig, who is being treated for pneumonia at Piedmont Medical Center;
- Joe Zeibel, who is at home recovering from a broken leg;
- Terry Swanner, who is recovering from shoulder surgery;
- Tom McLean, who is under hospice care at the Crossings
- Georgeanna, Grace and Taylor McSwain.

Peace,

Douglass
